Dear Friends and Supporters,

For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you.

You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, declares the LORD, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile."

Jeremiah 29:11-14

We at BPWM have entered the New Year with inspired ideas and dreams intact. Each of you has played an important role in the beginning stages of this ministry, and we want to thank you for your prayers, encouragement, and gifts of time and money.

In 2008 I had the opportunities to minister at the following churches: Fuente de Salvación in Garner, NC, and Iglesia Cristiana Obreros de Paz, and Iglesia El Rebaño, both in Orlando, FL. I was a guest speaker at Women's Aglow in Raleigh, and a speaker and volunteer at the North Carolina Correctional Institution for Women (NCCIW), and the Raleigh Correctional Center for Women (RCCW) IN THE JOB Start Program I volunteered for sixteen weeks to mentor young women in the program. It was an honor to be a guest speaker for this program. I also volunteered with the Prison Fellowship Ministry in Fuquay Varina, NC, working with participants as part of their orientation.

We are praying and believing for our facility to house and minister to these women soon to be released from prison. There are many exciting parts in this development process, one being my meeting with other people that have the same heart and interest for the prison ministry, Amen. Thank you for your continued support.

Love in Christ,

Pura Crespo

Delight yourself also in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart.
